Hey Mary,

How are you? I'm having a great holiday in Tokyo with my family. We have taken many photos here. I know you are interested in Japan so I'll let you see them. It's brilliant!

I'm writing this postcard in Ueno Park right now. It's cloudy and we feel quite cool. Dad and I are seeing the animals at the zoo. My mum loved the sight of those animals and the cherry blossoms so she took many photos of them. Oh! I forget to tell you my feelings about yesterday. We went to Ginza yesterday. Although I don't like shopping, here in Ginza, I was just shopping, shopping and shopping for Japanese snacks, comics and souvenirs. They all make me crazy! We go to Sanrio Puroland tomorrow. I will go crazy again!

It's already eleven o'clock in Japan. I need to sleep now. Bye! See you in Hong Kong.
