

My Mid Autumn Festival

Today was a holiday as you know it's Mid-Autumn Festival. I woke my parents up on this morning of sunshine. My mother told me to bring her to Mega Box, so we took a taxi there.

Mega Box is situated in Kowloon Bay. It was convenient for us to get there. We just walked around the shopping mall. Then we felt hungry so we decided to have lunch in a Korean restaurant.

I love Korean food and we ordered quite a lot of dishes. I love the Korean pickled cabbage most. It tastes sour and a little bit spicy. It's great for us to whet our appetite. I recommended it to them and they fell in love with it.

Finally, we went home. We bought some food from the supermarket. At night, we cooked it and enjoyed it while we were watching a TV show.
