

Part B (Mock Test 2 Question 7)

You are a member of the Comic Book Club in your school. You have been asked to write an article for your school magazine about the benefits of reading comic books. The title of your article is, 'Why comic books are worth reading'. Write the article.

Comic books are also called comic magazines or simply comics. A comic book is a publication that consists of comic art in the form of sequential juxtaposed panels that represent individual scenes

Although comic books have their origin in Japan in 1700s, and Europe in 1830s, comic books were first become popular in the United States during the 1930s.

I like reading comic books very much. I read comic books for the first time when I was eight years old. I loved that at first sight. Now I usually read comic books once a week. My favourite comic book is called "Naruto". It is a Japanese comic. The comic book started in 1999 in Japan. In August 2014, the cumulative sales of the booklet have exceeded 200 million. I love it forever.

Now, I talk about the benefits of the reading comic books.

First, reading comics can broaden our horizons, open wide our vision beyond the textbooks to absorb knowledge, ideas, inspirations and imaginations, and can let us learn the customs of the foreign countries and so on.

Next, we can even learn some message and truth, and gain wisdom through comics and change our outlook on life.

Then we can learn painting techniques. The beautiful pictures are works of fine art to enjoy.

Finally, reading comics is a recreational activity for us to add fun to life.

Reading comic books have many benefits, so we can read more comic books in our leisure time and they are worth reading.
