

Part B (Mock Test 2 Question 7)

You are a member of the Comic Book Club in your school. You have been asked to write an article for your school magazine about the benefits of reading comic books. The title of your article is, 'Why comic books are worth reading'. Write the article.

Why comic books are worth reading?

There are too many ways to learn English, such as reading an English book, watching an English movie or talking in English. However, do you know the benefits of reading comic books?

I have read comic books. The truth is every child love reading comic books. Although so many parents say that reading comic books is a waste of time, I don't agree! Every cook, every story must have its meaning and its value. Therefore, I think children can learn something meaningful from comic books.

Comic books are full of fun. One of its benefits is it can spend one's leisure time. If you feel boring, you should read a comic book! It can help you to feel interested and involved.

Moreover, reading comic books can help your mood change for the better. If you feel upset, please open a comic book! You can become more relaxed and cheerful. It is a good way to make you feel happy.

In addition, reading comic books can help you to be fond of reading books. Comic books always have few words and lots of pictures. Therefore, it suits those people who don't love reading words or it is also suitable for children who don't master many words. Comic books also have some funny and cute graphic in them. It would make you fall in love with the books.

Why are comic books worth reading? Comic books can also enhance one's word power. Children are able to decipher the meanings of unknown vocabulary based on the context of the pictures. I believe that comic books can help children learn faster.

Moreover, reading comic books can encourage a love of reading. Comic book readers do at least as much reading as non-comic book readers. And if you read more comic books, then you can develop a positive attitude towards reading other books as well.

Last but not least, I think that comic books are fun to read. Reading books can enhance one's literacy and reading skills. Comics are not heard to be a replacement of many other forms of stories but simply another medium to enjoy.
